

Electing Convention for New Bishop Date Set

The Electing Convention to select the new Bishop for the Central Diocese is set for March 14th, 2015 at 10:00 a.m. at St. Stephen's Cathedral, Harrisburg. The PHFA garage located next to the Cathedral adjacent to the Bar Association will be available for free parking and an attendant will be available to facilitate ease of parking. There will be a block of rooms available at the Harrisburg Hilton Downtown. Reservation details will be provided soon. Delegates will be seated in the Cathedral and Alternates will be seated in a separate room nearby. Voting will be processed electronically for this election. Further details will be provided when available. Video and audio will be provided for delegates and the entire process will be live streamed and available to everyone via Internet so that those not attending can follow the process and balloting.
